

Create a create-react-app and create a page with a form with the following requirements:

1. There would be 4 input fields: Name, Email, Password and confirm Password.
2. The name input field should be disabled and your name should be autopopulated in the field.
3. The focus on the Email input should be there when the page is loaded.
4. The input fields should be imported from a single reusable functional component.